

Age of Creativity News 15 March 2018

This Month...

AoC Update - Welcome to the third monthly Age of Creativity E-News which aims to bring you all the headlines of the previous four weeks. If you enjoy our newsletters then the following paragraph is of great importance.

On 25 May 2018, a new law, the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), comes into force. The GDPR is designed to give you more control over your information and increases your data protection rights. Once the GDPR comes into force, we will no longer be able to send you our monthly newsletter via email unless we have your explicit permission first. To ensure you receive our newsletter email hello@ageofcreativity.co.uk and put in the subject line.

In the Spotlight this month...

UPLOAD: It's always interesting to discover what other countries are up to so Postcard from Taiwan: dreams never age! by David Cutler of Baring Foundation is an interesting if not inspiring read about one of the world's fastest ageing societies. To read more click here. Thanks to everyone who uploaded their news, reports, jobs etc this month. To share your news simply Upload it on our website here.

EVENT: LAHF's (London Arts and Health Forum) Creativity and Wellbeing Week, started in 2012, has grown to be a major festival highlighting work going on around arts and health. This year's festival, which runs from 4 - 10 June, featuring debates and discussions, performances and exhibitions, tours and practical sessions, is a great opportunity to find out more, make connections, be inspired, and shape the future of arts, creativity and wellbeing. More information here.

BLOG: ART IN MIND by Heather Thomas. This is not a recent Blog but well worth a revisit. Art in Mind took its model from training and research carried out by Arts4Dementia and adapted it for its own particular style and needs. To read it click here. We are always looking for interesting blogs and case studies, get in touch if you want to tell your story to our members. hello@ageofcreativity.co.uk

SOCIAL MEDIA: Our most popular post on social media this month was Could the Montessori method help people with dementia? Click here to read it .Follow us on Facebook and Twitter to find more and tag us in your posts @ageofcreativity.

This is just the tip of the iceberg! If you want free, regular updates on the topics that interest you throughout the month sign up as an AoC member...simply Sign Up. Please forward this to your networks so they too can benefit from the Age of Creativity.
